“I do.” What does God’s Word say about Marriage?

(see our feature article on pages 8 - 9)

*“And the Lord God
said, “It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper

Therefore a man
shall leave his father

and they shall
become one flesh.”

God's Design of Marriage...

by Pamela Neu, co-host of Morning Praise

"The LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being." (Genesis 2:7)

Perfection. Adam was a perfect creation of God. He was placed in the Garden and was given a purpose. But Adam was not complete.

Completion. "So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh. The LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man..." Adam was made complete; and "God saw all that he had made, and it was very good" (Genesis 1:31).

God was meticulous in His design of marriage. Ephesians 5 directs us in the authority structure of the home. The relationship of husband and wife is an earthly picture of Christ's relationship to the Church. It is structured for completion and sufficiency.

Faith Radio's mission is to "strengthen the local church and family unit." Through this ministry, the Truth of the Gospel is proclaimed and marriages are strengthened.

Farewell Andrew!

“A man’s heart plans his way,
But the LORD directs his steps.” Proverbs 16:9

In July, 2004, Andrew Leuthold packed up his family in Atlanta and came to Faith Radio in Montgomery to serve as Operations Manager and host of Morning Praise. (Two years later, Pamela Neu joined him as co-host of the program.) Encouraging listeners will continue to be “all in a day’s work,” but Andrew will soon be serving in the state of Florida.

Pamela and Andrew’s final “Morning Praise” together was March 23. We are confident that the Lord will continue to use Andrew mightily, as from here he will serve as Operations Director of WKES (Moody Radio Florida) in St. Petersburg, Florida. Andrew’s tremendous gifts and friendship will be greatly missed at Faith Radio, but we wish him and his family all the best as they step out on this new journey of service together!

programmer Spotlight by Bob Crittenden

For some 36 years now, Dr. Jim Burns has been dedicated to helping families find Biblically-based, God-honoring solutions to the issues they face. HomeWord is the daily radio program of the HomeWord Center for Youth and Family, and Faith Radio is pleased to present it Monday through Friday afternoons at 2:30pm.

Jim is an award-winning author, and his books include Creating an Intimate Marriage and Confident Parenting. In addition to books and radio program, he is a featured speaker at seminars and conferences. He is married to Cathy, and they have 3 daughters.

The radio program addresses a variety of topics and includes periodic teaching by Jim Burns, as well as interviews with guests. Recent guests have included: Ron Blue, Emerson Eggerichs, Shaunti Feldhahn,

Dr. Jim Burns, host of

“HomeWord encourages listeners to build their homes on a strong foundation.”

Gary Smalley, Thelma Wells, and CeCe Winans. Dennis Rainey of FamilyLife Today and Howard Dayton of MoneyWise have also been guests on the program.

The ministry’s Mission Statement says: “HomeWord seeks to advance the work of God in the world by educating, equipping, and encouraging parents and churches to build God-honoring families from generation to generation.” The ministry believes it effectively reaches young people by equipping their parents, grandparents, and youth leaders with solid Biblical truth that they can pass on.

We invite you to join us weekdays at 2:30pm for HomeWord, and be sure to check out the website at www.homeword.com.

Faith Radio: Growing the Kingdom and Building Disciples

Matthew 28:19 tells us “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” This great commission instructs us to make disciples of Jesus Christ. Recently Dr. Tony Evans was in Montgomery, and he made this statement during his sermon: “We have made Christians without making disciples.” Being a disciple of Christ requires that we be dynamically growing in our relationship with Him and actively serving others. Discipleship is a process of continued spiritual development - reading, studying and meditating on God’s Word.

Shouldn’t Jesus’ last command be our first priority? Faith Radio is here to make disciples and help our listeners grow. We have many Bible-teaching programs throughout the day to help individuals grow in their knowledge of Jesus Christ. Our praise music draws people into His presence by uplifting their hearts to the Lord.

We are thankful to many who support the ministry of Faith Radio in building disciples! When people tune in and hear the powerful life-changing messages, they are fed God’s Word. One listener recently wrote, “I was feeling dry spiritually.... in the desert parched.... life is tough. I am thanking God for Faith Radio. It is a spring in the wilderness.”

Thank you for providing for Faith Radio to be a spring in the wilderness, a bright light in a dark world. We know that when you help us lift up the name of Jesus Christ, people are drawn to Him.

Someday the Great Commission will be the great completion. We invite you to participate in the greatest and most significant cause in history: growing God’s Kingdom and building His disciples. Here are some ways you can join us in broadcasting the love message of Jesus Christ:

Highland Avenue Baptist Church

March 11, 2012 • Montgomery

(right) Faith Radio enjoys opportunities to visit churches, schools, and civic groups. We had an opportunity to hear and share how Faith Radio has impacted lives at Highland Avenue Baptist Church. Billy Irvin and Pastor Derek Frost pause to reflect how Faith Radio helps build disciples, resulting in stronger churches and communities.

“I do.” We’re not saying these words like we used to. Yesterday, we dreamed of being June Cleaver; today, Angelina Jolie. Yesterday, our greatest calling was to be a wife and mother. Today, we determine that a husband and children not stand in the way of our calling.

The ADPH (Alabama Department of Public Health) recently released the live birth records for the state of Alabama. There were 7,446 births in the year 2010. 1,311 of those children were born in to families. Go ahead, read the statistic again... one out of seven of our state’s children has a married mother and father.

It’s essential that we look far beyond Hollywood when we explore the institutions of marriage and family. We must look to Scripture. The first wedding was performed in the Garden of Eden, and we read the details in Genesis 2. Her gown? It was a masterpiece created by The Great Designer. The guests? The Father Almighty attended with all His creation. The purpose of this “ceremony” was to fulfill the need for companionship and intimacy that God had created in man. The intent of this relationship was to symbolize Christ’s intimate union with the church.

There are many reasons why our marriage statistics are getting worse. Divorces are soaring, and many have decided it’s “not worth the risk” to marry. Living together and raising babies solo have lost the stigmas they once held. The “all about me” generation has decided it can go it alone.

Oh, the grief this brings to the Father! He not only designed marriage, but so carefully outlined what it should look like, so all the world could see the commitment and faithfulness that He has to His people. The authors of God’s Word painstakingly give the recipes for successful families. And we’ve so tainted the relationship that we’ve opted to throw away the recipe Book altogether.

It’s a pretty grim picture. But it doesn’t have to be! There are churches and ministries

“I do.”
We’re not saying these words like we used to.

co-host of Morning Praise committed to the promotion and health of marriages, and the resources they bring are transforming marriages throughout our country! In February, Faith Radio partnered with the FamilyLife® Weekend to Remember in Montgomery. This regular marriage retreat offers solid biblical teaching, encouragement, and motivation to work at the relationship God holds so dear. Winners of our on-air contest were blessed with the gift of strengthening their marriages, and the conference yielded some amazing statistics of its own:

- A record 486 in attendance
- 34 committed their lives to Christ for the first time
- 130 re-committed their lives and marriages to Christ

Now those are some great statistics! The Weekend to Remember is just one resource that Faith Radio has stood behind in support of the Christian family. Day after day the broadcasts of Focus on the Family, FamilyLife Today, and Intentional Living with Randy Carlson highlight specific areas of the family and offer biblical counsel by which to live. Saturdays, Mark Gregston gives practical advice in the area of Parenting Today’s Teens.

In addition to the programs that directly address the challenges of family life, the entire programming of Faith Radio is designed to strengthen and encourage the believer, so that in every deed and relationship, we are equipped to choose righteousness!

As Faith Radio listeners apply the teaching and praise that is offered, the statistics will turn around. As the Church applies the Word of God, the Lord will again look at all He created and say, “it is very good.”

Everything was perfect...

by Andrew Leuthold

Do you remember the story of Adam and Eve? One man. One woman. Alone in a beautiful garden. Created in God's own image. It almost sounds too good to be true. But it is. It's a story that started out perfect, but had a tragic outcome. One that would affect the entire human race.

Have you ever stopped and wondered how anyone could mess up such a good thing? In my mind, I've often put myself in their position and then come to the realization that if they hadn't messed up the destiny of the entire human race, I probably would have.

God created the institution of the family before he instituted human government or even the church. I believe that God planned from the beginning that the family - a married relationship between one man and one woman - would be the basic foundation upon which all other human institutions would be based.

One of the benefits of Faith Radio is that it supports a biblical view of the marriage relationship by airing programs that strengthen that relationship. Morning Praise, while not a program that deals directly with marriage or relationship advice, provides interesting conversation that upholds the bonds of holy matrimony. We frequently chat with guests who have information that is geared toward developing Godly families and strengthening marriages.

No one goes into a marriage with the intention of ruining his or her life and the life of their spouse. However, when a relationship is not nurtured in a Godly environment, it can very quickly turn from the Garden of Eden to a briar patch. By sacrificially serving our mates and loving them just as Christ loves us, we will get through those sticky situations and build a stronger marriage than we had at the beginning. Faith Radio and it's programming can help you do just that.

The concept of The Meeting House is to encourage and challenge listeners to apply the principles of the Scriptures into our lives. Through Christ-centered conversations with my guests, I desire to provide content that can be integrated into various areas of our lives - including our relationships. And, I want to inform believers on public policy issues that affect families.

STRENGTHENING MEETING HOUSE RELATIONSHIPS...

“The Meeting House” stresses Biblical principles in overcoming the stresses in our homes.

by Bob Crittenden, host of The Meeting House

It's important that we do not separate our professed faith from our practice, and this is so important in our homes, including our marriages. I have been blessed to connect with some of the foremost Christian experts on matters of concern to the family. For instance, I've had the opportunity to chat regularly with Dr. David Hawkins, a noted author and columnist for Crosswalk.com and other websites. Over the past year, I've interviewed the leaders of ministries heard on Faith Radio that are dedicated to addressing marriage and family topics - Dennis Rainey of FamilyLife and Jim Daly of Focus on the Family.

Our knowledge of and involvement in public policy issues affecting families are important considerations of the program. Stuart Shepard, host of “Family News in Focus” is a regular contributor. Guests such as Dan Gainor of the Media Research Center and Susan Fisher of Moms for Family Television have been great resources providing discernment for families as they engage with media. Over the years, representatives of

Concerned Women for America, Family Research Council, Liberty Counsel, and Alabama-based organizations such as the Alabama Citizens Action Program (ALCAP) and Alabama Policy Institute have provided excellent insight and analysis into policy issues.

Faith Radio is dedicated to strengthening families, and The Meeting House is here to provide tools for marriages and families.

A memorial gift is a meaningful way to honor someone at the time of death by recognizing that person's Christian faith and testimony. Similarly, an honorarium is a tangible way of honoring a living person's testimony. We are thankful for individuals listed below who choose to honor friends and loved ones through a gift that extends the message of Christ through Faith Radio's ministry. Gifts made as of March 8, 2012

(Clockwise from left) Camilla Irvin, Billy, Bob, Ken Tada, and Joni Eareckson Tada of "Joni & Friends" were able to enjoy a time of fellowship over a meal with the Tadas and fellow broadcasters.

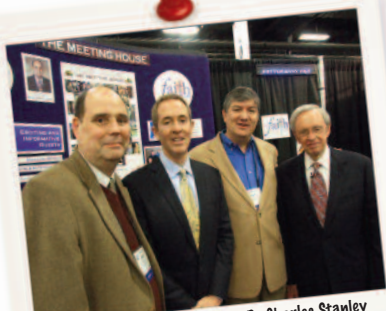

Max Lucado of "UpWords" stopped by to discuss God's grace, as well to provide encouragement for navigating life's challenges with a sense of hope in Him.

Nancy Leigh DeMoss of "Revive Our Hearts" brought encouragement for women as they seek to walk in the Biblical definition of what it means to be a "true woman."

Bob, along with Focus on the Family President and Co-Host Jim Daly, and some cardboard friends from "Adventures in Odyssey."

Bob, Andy Stanley, Billy, and Dr. Charles Stanley gathered for a picture following Bob's interview with Dr. Stanley of "In Touch" about the ministry's 35th Anniversary.

Faith Radio team members Russell Dean, Wiely Boswell, Bob Crittenden, and Billy Irvin attended the annual National Religious Broadcasters convention in Nashville in February. In addition to attending a variety of worship, instruction, and fellowship events, we were able to connect with so many people at our booth on the exhibit hall and find out how God is working through our ministries. There were a number of Faith Radio programmers who stopped by to record interviews for The Meeting House.
